Report

Name of the activity: Ek Tareek Ek Ghanta (ETEG)

NSS Unit of Govt. Degree College Arki, organized a successful cleanliness drive as part of the “Ek Tareek Ek Ghanta” programme under the campaign “Swachhata Pakhwada and Swachhata Hi Sewa” on 1st October, 2023, focusing on the surrounding of Health Centre in Batal Village. The drive aimed to promote cleanliness and hygiene in the community and create awareness about its importance. The volunteers, displaying their commitment and enthusiasm, arrived early in the morning at 9:30am. The cleanliness drive was started with a vibrant and enthusiastic rally from the campus of GDC Arki to Batal village. Around the health centre, Pradhan, up-Pradhan and ward members of Gram Panchayat Batal village welcomed the rally. Swachhata pledge was administered to the volunteers by the programme officer Dr. Dhandev Sharma. After that volunteer cleaned the surrounding of health centre and water source. In this programme, all the programme officers, Panchayat head, ward members and other local members along with the volunteers contributed enthusiastically. About 100 people including local people participated in this programme. This programme was completed under the guidance and patronage of the college principal, Professor Sunita Sharma. Professor Puneet Thakur, Professor Chaman Pista, Professor Hemlata, Professor Rekha were present on behalf of the college. This programme took place under the supervision of NSS programme officers Dr. Dhan Dev Sharma and Professor Suman Kumari. This cleanliness drive was a resounding success. Through the dedication and hard work, the volunteers were able to promote cleanliness and hygiene in Batal Village. The initiative not only enhanced the Health Centre's overall appearance but also created a positive impact on the health and well-being of the community.
